Subject: World Economic Forum Regional Action Group for Europe and Eurasia

Dear Minister,

It is my pleasure to invite you to join the second Virtual Meeting of the Regional Action Group for Europe and Eurasia which will take place on 18 May at 15.00-16.00 CEST.

This meeting will focus on how governments and business are moving forward to implement strategies to support the economic recovery across the region by sharing best practices and methods for cross-regional collaboration. It will also explore how the World Economic Forum can amplify and scale the recovery through ongoing initiatives such as the CEO Action Group for the European Green Deal and examine how developments in neighbouring regions - such as the impact of the pandemic in Africa – could affect Europe and Eurasia.

The meeting will be held in a private, informal and off-the-record environment and is designed to inspire ownership by participants and foster an open exchange of views. Discussions are guided by a moderator but the direction and decisions are those of the community members.

I am delighted to share the agenda of the meeting, the latest list of current members as well as the full

summary of the discussions of the Inaugural Virtual Meeting from 30 April for your convenience.

Access to the virtual meeting is reserved for confirmed participants. [...]

I look forward to your participation and active contributions on 18 May.

Yours sincerely,

The World Economic Forum, committed to improving the state of the world, is the International Organization for Public-Private Cooperation. The Forum engages the foremost political, business and other leaders of society to shape global, regional and industry agendas.
