Dear [REDACTED]

I hope that this mail finds you well. Apologies for the delayed reply which is due to very heavy agenda in the past weeks and kindly thank you in advance for your understanding.
We carefully checked the agenda of EVP Timmermans and we would be pleased to propose you a slot for a video-call on 21 February at 16 00. Regrettably an earlier slot is not possible due to completely packed agenda.
Would it be that slot also suitable on your side?

Kindly thank you in advance and wishing you happy seasonal holidays!

With best regards

Dear [REDACTED] dear [REDACTED] dear [REDACTED]

I am truly sorry to inform you that unfortunately we need to cancel the meeting scheduled on 25 November. It is very intense and heavy period and the agenda of Executive Vice-President Timmermans is absolutely packed with institutional commitments for the coming weeks.

We sincerely apologise for any inconveniences which this may have caused to you and kindly thank you in advance for your understanding.
May we take this opportunity to wish you all the best.

Dear [REDACTED],

Kindly thank you for your feedback. Due to very limited agenda availabilities, we would like to kindly propose you to find a commonly suitable date for EVP Timmermans with [REDACTED].

Also, due to very uncertain pandemic situation, physical meetings are organised on a very exceptional and justified basis, and we would like to propose you a virtual meeting instead.

In relation to that, could you please kindly propose few slots, which would be suitable on your side [REDACTED] for a virtual meeting in the week of 6 September?
