Importance: High

Dear Mr. Scannell,

During the current crisis, a direct exchange between you and Yara would be useful, complementing the discussions you have with other stakeholders about food security. Yara International ASA [REDACTED] is visiting Brussels and would be available for an in-person meeting this Thursday 17 March in the morning.

Please find attached a letter on behalf of our CEO office, detailing our key concerns related to food security and fertilizers – following from the current war in Ukraine.

We are aware of the fact that this request comes at the very last minute, and are all the more grateful for you to consider it. Alternatively we would like to propose an online meeting with Mr. [REDACTED] or with Yara representatives working on the crisis response.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
