Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you most kindly for the opportunity of the exchange with [REDACTED] at the Berlaymont. I penciled this into the agenda for the 1st option you kindly proposed: Tuesday 12/07/22, 11:00-11:30.

Please find the attached document, completed for [REDACTED] Identity Card and contact information.

Best regards

At J&J we work flexibly – so whilst it suits me to email you now, I do not expect a response or action outside of your own working hours.

Dear [REDACTED]

Following your exchange with [REDACTED] I would like to propose the following possible dates for a meeting in Berlaymont:

12/07 – 11:00-11:30/ 16:00-16:30

13/07 - 11:30-12:00

Please communicate your preference for a suitable date and send me back the attached document with the information of the participants, I will issue their V-passes in advance.

For transparency purposes, this meeting will be published in the Transparency Register of the European Commission. The Cabinet does not intend to communicate actively on the content of this meeting. However, in line with Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, minutes can be made accessible to the public upon request (without any disclosure of protected interests).

Looking forward to hearing from you.

With kind regards,

From: [REDACTED]

That's fantastic! If there is any date that works for you w/c 11 July or between 18-10 July let me know. In the latter I am particularly flexible.

Have a nice weekend!

Best,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

Sure, we can do that! Ideally in the second half of July, if you are still around, when things should be a bit calmer (I hope)...

Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for the active and open debate yesterday. It was interesting for us.

I was wondering if we could follow the conversation around (international) data flows in the context of all the legislative files going on.

This is non-urgent so happy to find a "calmer" period for you if that ever exists.

Best regards,

Stop the spread.
Keep your distance.
