Subject: RE: Invitation to Mr Timmermans to participate in 'Getting Zero-Emission Trucks on the Road' debate, 22 November, Brussels

Dear [REDACTED]

I take the liberty to reply in the absence of Daniel.

Regarding the participation of EVP in 'Getting Zero-Emission Trucks on the Road' debate, 22 November 2022, in Brussels – it is Strasbourg Tuesday and Mr Timmermans' institutional obligations will take him (and Daniel) there for the plenary of the European Parliament, thus unfortunately, not in a position to give a positive reply.

On the meeting request for Daniel for late August/September, we will come back to you upon Daniel's return to the office after 15 August.

Best regards,
[REDACTED]

Dear Daniel

I hope this email finds you well. I am contacting you for two reasons, hoping you are not yet on holiday. Should you already be on holiday, [REDACTED] or my colleague [REDACTED] in cc of this email will follow-up towards the end of August.

First of all, I would like to enquire if Vice-President Timmermans and yourself have received our request below and whether you already have an indication as to the availability of M. Timmermans to participate in our 22 November debate 'Getting Zero-Emission Trucks on the Road'.

Secondly, I would like to know if you would be available for a meeting with us ([REDACTED]) towards the end of August/ beginning of September to discuss the upcoming review of CO2 standards for heavy-duty vehicles. This meeting would be an opportunity to present our views on the upcoming legislative proposal (reflected in our recently released position paper) and also to explore possibilities of a meeting at CEO level with Vice-President Timmermans.

I look forward to hearing from you of these two points and remain at your disposal for any further question. In the meantime, I wish you a very pleasant summer break.

Kind regards,
