Dear [REDACTED]

Sorry not to have come back earlier and thanks for your call today.
We will rather schedule a meeting with the members in charge of the different topics.
Do you have preferred slots on 11 October? Do you already have other meetings in the Berlaymont?

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your response and we understand the challenge for finding the time.

[REDACTED] will be coming to Brussels on 11th October and [REDACTED] would indeed be delighted to meet Ms Reilly or Ms de Basaldua, depending on their availability. Could you please let us know if that would be feasible?

Thank you and look forward to hearing from you.

Dear [REDACTED]

It will be very difficult to find a suitable date within the coming months: i.e., on 21 and 22/11, the Commissioner will be in Strasbourg for the plenary session.

Should [REDACTED] be interested, we could arrange a meeting with Ms Patricia Reilly, Head, or Ms Nathalie de Basaldua, deputy Head of the Cabinet, depending on the dates chosen for the visit.

Have a nice weekend,

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you very much for your email.

Being fully aware of Commissioner McGuinness' extremely busy agenda, we were wondering whether she would be available for a meeting later this year? [REDACTED] could come to Brussels on 21st or 22nd of November (morning) for that specific meeting. As mentioned, [REDACTED] would be interested to discuss the asset management and insurance perspective to the broader retail investment agenda, but also any other topic that would be of interest for Commissioner McGuinness.

Thank you and we look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Thank you for your email to Commissioner McGuinness. I regret to inform you that the Commissioner will not be in Brussels on 11 October and therefore unable to meet with [REDACTED].
