Dear [REDACTED],

Once again, thank you very much for your e-mail and letter addressed to Executive Vice-President Timmermans, and requesting for a meeting.

Regrettably, EVP Timmermans is unable to reply positively due to heavy agenda constraints in the coming months. Executive Vice-President Timmermans passes on his regrets for not being able to accommodate your request and conveys his best wishes.

We would like to kindly encourage you to reach out to the Cabinet of Commissioner Breton and/or the Cabinet of Commissioner Sinkevicius.

Thank you in advance for your kind understanding and wishing you all the best.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your e-mail. We would like to acknowledge its receipt and we will come back to you as soon as possible. Due to high number of requests, it may take some time before we reply.

Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

Please find my friendly reminder for your kind consideration.

We managed to organize meetings in Brussels and [REDACTED] is intending now to travel to Brussels 21 and 22 February.

Maybe it is possible to accommodate a meeting on those dates.

Otherwise, we will surely make us available any time that is possible for Executive Vice-President Timmermans.

Sunny greetings,

[REDACTED]

Best regards
