Subject: Your application for access to documents in accordance with Regulation 1049/2001– Ref. GestDem 2015/5485

Dear Ms Cann,

I refer to your e-mail dated 21 October 2015 and registered on the same day under the above-mentioned reference number.

In your e-mail, you request "... all documents relating to the authorisation of two new roles by former Commissioner Dacian CIOLOŞ, specifically as a Member of the Board of Trustees of the International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI) and as Special Adviser to the President of the Commission in the field of international food safety. I would like to receive all applications for authorisation, any emails, correspondence and meeting notes which relate to these applications; all opinions from the ad hoc ethical committee on each case; and copies of the Commission's final decision in each case."

This reply concerns the documents related to the request for authorisation of the former Commissioner as Member of the Board of Trustees of the International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI) under the Code of Conduct for Commissioners. The request for access to documents concerning the activity as Special Adviser to the President will be dealt with separately by DG HR.

I have identified 8 documents falling within the scope of your request:

1. PUBLIC DOCUMENTS

Document n° 6 contains the extract of the minutes of the Commission meeting in which the decision on Mr Ciołoş post-mandate activity was adopted. Please note that the minutes are already available to the public and therefore, a copy is not enclosed.

2. CONCLUSIONS UNDER REGULATION 1049/2001

Following the examination of your request and of the documents concerned, I am pleased to grant you:

- Full access to document n° 2, n° 5 and n° 8.
- Partial access to documents n° 1, n° 3 and to the cover note to document n° 7. Partial access is also granted to the cover e-mails accompanying document n° 4. You will find copies enclosed.

The reasons for the refusal of the deleted parts of the above-mentioned documents are set out below.

The deleted parts of documents n° 1 and n° 7 contain the e-mail address of the former Commissioner and of third parties which are personal data covered by the exception provided for in Article 4 (1) (b) of Regulation 1049/2001. This is also the case of the deleted parts in document n° 4 and certain parts of documents n° 1 and n° 3, which contain the names and the e-mail addresses of the Commission's officials in charge of the file. Moreover, the deleted parts in the text of document n° 3 contain references to contractual details. Disclosing this information would reveal personal data and may undermine the privacy of the concerned Commissioner as well as of Commission officials.

In its judgment in the Bavarian Lager case¹, the Court of Justice ruled that when a request is made for access to documents containing personal data, Regulation (EC) No. 45/2001² (hereinafter the 'Data Protection Regulation') becomes fully applicable.

The concerned documents contain elements which constitute personal data in the meaning of Article 2(a) of Regulation (EC) No 45/2001, as they reveal information about an identified or an identifiable person. According to Article 8(b) of the Data Protection Regulation, personal data shall only be transferred to recipients if the recipient establishes the necessity of having the data transferred and if there is no reason to assume that the data subject's legitimate interests might be prejudiced.³ Those two conditions are cumulative.⁴

I consider that in the present case the necessity of disclosing the aforementioned personal data to you has not been established in your request.

Consequently, access to personal data contained in the relevant parts of the above-mentioned documents has to be refused on the basis of the exception provided for in Article 4 (1) (b) of Regulation 1049/2001.

If you wish to appeal against this decision, you should write to the Commission Secretary-General at the address sg-acc-doc@ec.europa.eu. You have fifteen working days from receipt of this letter in which to appeal.
