Dear Mr Klaus,

We are really very sorry but we were in the meantime been scheduled a series of other meetings tomorrow in the afternoon - and are only coming back to you today because we've got public holidays in Portugal on Friday last and yesterday. Though, unless you could make it alternatively on Wednesday in the morning, we would need to leave the occasion to meet you and to introduce ourselves for another opportunity. Please accept our apologies for any inconvenience this may have caused. In any case, we appreciate and are really very thankful to your availability.

Kind regards,

Nuno Jonet

Subject: Meeting PMI/ Cabinet to the President - EC - 15 June at 4.00 pm

Dear Mr Jonet,

As explained by Mr Klaus, Member of Cabinet to President Barroso, despite the meeting we already had with PMI and Mr Kristof Doms, the Head of the EU Corporate Affairs office, we could schedule this meeting tomorrow at 4.00 pm on the 13 Floor.

I have booked the meeting room 13/130.

At 3.50 pm you are welcome at the reception desk of the Berlaymont. You can register there and they will then inform the huissier to the Cabinet to the President who will come to give you access to the 13 Floor.

The meeting room has been booked for 30 mn.

If you need any access for a car, may I ask you to inform me today before 1.00 pm.

We look forward to welcoming you tomorrow.

Best regards,

25/10/2012

Dear Henning Klaus,

I'm contacting you directly following an indication in that sense given by António Cabral. My colleague Pedro Nunes dos Santos and myself are thankful to you and your availability for a short meeting. We would just like to share with you some of our views and concerns in relation with the possible review of the TPD. Do you think that you could find half an hour for us on the 15th of June after 4.00 pm or in the morning of the 16th after 9.00 pm?

We look forward to being able to meet you.

Best regards,

Nuno Jonet
