101129 Suggested Programme for Budapest seminar on DI

Time	Session	Purpose	Facilitator/presenter
09:00 – 09:30	Introduction by the relevant Hungarian gov. representative Introduction of the relevant MA representative Introduction by the relevant EC Rep	To outline the aims of the seminar To demonstrate the EC commitment to comprehensive DI	Dr. Palicz Tamás Hunya Balázs
09:30 – 9:50	Evidence and legal base for deinstitutionalisation and challenges in the process	To demonstrate the reasons behind the international move towards DI To highlight recent developments in the EC in relation to DI To highlight the risks of poorly planned or implemented DI (lessons from other countries)	Georgette Mulheir
09:50 – 10:10	Presentation of the Bulgarian action plan	To provide a practical and up to date example of planning in DI, where the EC and government have worked closely with experts to plan and implement large scale DI	Nadia Shabani or representative (TBC)
10:10 – 10:30	Presentation of the Czech DI process	To provide a practical and up to date example of planning in DI	Tereza Klouckova (TBC)
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee break
11:00 – 11:30	Presentation of the Hungarian action plan	To explore the specific actions planned by the Hungarian government re DI	Relevant Hungarian government representative Nyitrai Imre, Dr. Andráczi Toth Veronika
11:30 – 12:10	Model of international best practices in DI and compliance of the HU process	To outline a comprehensive, best practice approach to DI in the light of the HU Action Plan – providing an assessment of the whole documentation	Georgette Mulheir
12:10 – 12:30	Assessment of the HU Action Plan	Opinion and recommendations of the other experts of the Spidla expert group on the HU Action Plan	Jan Pfeiffer (TBC)
12:30 – 13:30	Discussion
13:30 - 14:30	Lunch break
14:30 – 15:10	Call for proposals in the light of the new action plan		Representative of the MA; Relevant Hungarian government representative
15:10 – 15:30	Conclusions	To identify next steps in developing the Hungarian DI plans	Government MA EC