Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your meeting request with former US Congressman Kingston. Christian Burgsmüller is available on Thursday October 20 from 11:00 am till 11:30 am. Let me know whether that would suit the agenda of Mr Kingston. Please fill in the enclosed visitors' form and return it to me earliest possible. No access to our parking facilities can be granted to Mr Kingston. Thanks.

Best,

Subject: Meeting Request: Former US Congressman

Hello,

By way of introduction, I am an attorney in the Washington office of Squire Patton Boggs, an international law firm with offices in over 40 cities around the world, including Brussels. I will be traveling to Brussels next week with one of our principals, former US Congressman Jack Kingston, who will be speaking at an AmCham event next Thursday evening.

I am writing to see if you or any of your colleagues may be available to meet with Congressman Kingston for an informational discussion on a variety of trade-related issues, including the most recent round of TTIP negotiations, Britain's exit from the EU, and the potential impacts of the upcoming US elections on trade negotiations going forward.

Congressman Kingston is currently available on Wednesday 19 October (after 1500) and Thursday 20 October (schedule flexible). We would welcome a meeting at a time most convenient for you.

Many thanks in advance for your consideration of this request.

Best,
