Indeed, my services are in the process of verifying whether other requested documents are held with other European Commission's services. I will inform you about the outcome of this search as soon as possible. I would appreciate your understanding. I apologise for any inconvenience this may cause and I assure you that we treat this request with the utmost seriousness.

This second reply concerns the following documents:

- (1) the briefing prepared for the meeting with the European Interactive Digital Advertising Alliance (EDAA) of 23/11/2016 (our reference Basis SG PDT-VPs/1028 – VP5/2016/146.01);
- (2) the briefing prepared for the Roundtable of 19/12/2016 organised by Vice-President Ansip (our reference Basis SG-PDT-VPs/1326 – VP5/2016/159.02);
- (3) the notes from Roundtable of 19/12/2016 (our reference Ares(2018)66392).

I enclose copies of these documents with certain parts expunged pursuant to the Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 (hereinafter "Regulation 1049/2001"). For each expunged part, a comment next to it indicates the reason for it.

Please note that certain parts of these documents concern topics other than ePrivacy and therefore do not fall under the scope of your request. These parts have been thus redacted.

Moreover, the briefing prepared for the meeting with EDAA and the notes from the Roundtable to which you have requested access contain personal data.

Pursuant to Article 4(1) (b) of Regulation 1049/2001, access to a document has to be refused if its disclosure would undermine the protection of privacy and the integrity of the individual, in particular in accordance with Community legislation regarding the protection of personal data. The applicable legislation in this field is Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (hereinafter "Regulation 45/2001")¹.

When access is requested to documents containing personal data, Regulation 45/2001 becomes fully applicable². According to Article 8(b) of this Regulation, personal data shall only be transferred to recipients if they establish the necessity of having the data transferred to them and if there is no reason to assume that the legitimate rights of the persons concerned might be prejudiced.
