CBI (Confederation of British Industry) Round Table Meeting - [REDACTED]
19/09/2012, 12:00-13:00

[REDACTED], CBI introduced the meeting which was intended as an opportunity for CBI members to further discuss the draft Regulation.

[REDACTED] addressed the CBI members on the main objectives and measures of the proposed Regulation with a particular focus on the areas of concerns raised by CBI in their February Position Paper (right to be forgotten, data portability, fines, subject access requests, DPOs) (for detailed points see Briefing). [REDACTED] underlined that the aim was to reach political agreement at the end of the Irish Presidency and pointed to COM's openness to further discuss various provisions in order to fine-tune/clarify them.

CBI members raised a series of questions targeting inter alia the coverage of the right to data portability, the right to be forgotten, the definition of "personal data", the advent of the cloud and the DPOs.

CBI acknowledged that their February Position Paper was an initial reaction where not all the issues were completely thought through and that they were willing to engage in a positive manner and with concrete drafting suggestions. [REDACTED] indicated openness to further examine the specific issues of CBI members.
