

Meeting with the European Jewish Congress

Time and location: 25 February at 11:00, Brussels (Berlaymont building)

Topic: Jewish cemeteries and the ESJF European Jewish Cemeteries Initiative

Participants:

- Alicja Herbowska (Deputy Head of Cabinet of Commissioner Navracsics)
- [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] (Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA))
- [REDACTED] (European Jewish Congress)

Notes from the meeting

- There are currently 11.000 sites
- Link to the Council of Europe and UNESCO
- They have a perspective of around 100 cemeteries at the moment but it increases constantly.
- 90 % funding necessitated for the renovation of sites the rest to other projects.