Dear [REDACTED] and the team,

Thank you so much for your answer, we are looking forward to a meaningful celebration.
Regarding the details concerning the organisation of the celebration, I will be following the same steps I am doing for a few years already.
However, I would like to update you with the direction I will be taking, the guests I will be inviting, and hear from you before. I will be happy to meet with the person responsible in your team (you, Mr. [REDACTED] and anyone else). I am available on Wednesday, October 3rd at any time between 8:30 and 17:00 (I will be out of town and reach on Monday 1 and Tuesday 2 oct.).
I can come to the Berlaymont, my office is on Schuman as well.
Once again thank you!
Looking forward to hearing from you,
[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Further to our email exchange – we've blocked the 05/12 at 18:00 -19:00 for Commissioner Moedas participation.
We will need further details about the format – as for the patronage letter I will send it tomorrow.
I would kindly ask you for the logistical details and contacts with the protocol (as in previous years) to include always my colleague [REDACTED] (here in Cc) in the loop.
We remain fully available to provide all the necessary support.

Best,

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email.

As discussed this morning the letter for the confirmation of the patronage will follow next week.

I had the chance to touch base with Ms Del Brenna about this matter and to decide about the date and time, I need a quick update - how much time is needed (duration).?

I look forward to your reply.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Following our phone conversation, let me thank you for sharing the good news of the patronage for the EuroChanukah 2018.

Also, at your convenience, and at the return of Commissioner Moedas and his team, please be so kind to inform me which date and time, the Commissioner will be present and you have chosen for this event.

As written in the letter, EuroChanukah at the Berlaymont can possibly be organised on December 3, 5 and 6, at 12:30 or preferably at 18:00.

Looking forward to hearing from you
