Dear [REDACTED],

As discussed this earlier today, you can find a draft agenda for the event with Ambassador O'Sullivan attached. Please let me know before the end of the week in case you have any comments/additions.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

I'm sorry I missed you earlier. Yes, 5-6 p.m. on Wednesday September 5 works for Ambassador O'Sullivan.

Can we speak tomorrow? I am in the office from 9.00 a.m.

All best,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Would you have time for a short call this afternoon to schedule the event with Ambassador O'Sullivan? If possible, we would like to have the event between 5 and 6pm on Wednesday 5 September.

Kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

Apologies for the long delay but we have only today been able to have a look at a more final agenda for the Ambassador's visit to Brussels the week starting September 3.

Unfortunately, the breakfast slot I had mentioned (September 6) will not work. In fact all the high-level talks are taking place in the mornings, so I wanted to check with you to see if September 5th around 4.00/4.30 p.m. would work?

Many thanks for letting me know if this is a useful time slot for an event with Ambassador O'Sullivan.

All best,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your mail and positive reply. We will accommodate, but may have to shift around a bit in house for meetings, but this should work.

I should be around next week and can follow-up. Please do not hesitate to contact me as soon as you get a clear view on David O'Sullivan's agenda.

with best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear Mr. [REDACTED],

I am contacting you on behalf of Ambassador O'Sullivan to thank you for your invitation and to say that he would be interested to speak at CEPs during an upcoming trip to Brussels (September 2-7).

We are awaiting the programme of official meetings at Headquarters to know which day/time slot might work. Tentatively, we might eye a breakfast session on Sept 6, but I will not be in a position to confirm that for the next week or so.

If this sounds suitable, please let me know and can work out the details as the date approaches.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject: debate at CEPS

Dear David,

How are you? It seems that you have been the most successful of all EU representatives in DC in getting some positive results! I do not understand why HoSG do not have a more united front in dealing with the US President. Only 'l'Union (Européenne) fait la force', not a succession of visits by member states HoSG, like now again with PM Conte. I would be interested to hear your reflections on this issue.

Should you be around in the Autumn in Brussels, and interested to speak on the subject, we would be most interested to give you the floor. It is a long time ago that you were at CEPS.
