They also contacted [REDACTED] and I already accepted to join her meeting, so her assistant is already setting up something. If you want you can say that you are aware that they already contacted her and that your cab member dealing with asset management issues will join that meeting

Dear Mr Wynands,

I trust this e-mail finds you well.

I am writing to you on behalf of my client Natixis Investment Managers.

[REDACTED] are coming from the US (for meetings in Europe) and will be in Brussels on 8 November.

Natixis Investment Managers is a global asset management company with headquarters in Paris and Boston and it is the second biggest French manager by market share. Being in this unique position, Natixis team is experiencing legislative regimes on both sides of Atlantic and will be impacted by future changes raising from Brexit in a very particular way. Therefore, [REDACTED] would very much welcome the opportunity to meet you and share their views on cross-border/transatlantic asset management issues. They would also like to discuss the EU financial services proposals, currently being negotiated, which affect the asset management business globally.

We would be grateful if you could let us know if there are any times that would suit you for a meeting. Please find attached [REDACTED] biographies for your convenience.

I wish you a pleasant weekend.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
