Dear [redacted]

Thanks for your time on the phone yesterday. I would be very grateful if you could put me in contact with the person in the Cabinet who is dealing with this meeting request. I know it may not be possible to finalise a meeting yet, but it would be a great help even to establish if one might be possible in principle, or to identify some potential timeslots, as we plan [redacted] time in Brussels. Many thanks for your assistance with this.

Dear [redacted] Dear [redacted]

A slight change to [redacted] dates since my mail below - [redacted] will be in Brussels all day October 10 and 11 (not 9). If Commissioner Moedas has any availability on the 10th or 11th, we will try to accommodate whatever time suits best. Many thanks.

Subject: Meeting with IBM [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED] Dear [REDACTED]

Last year I was in contact with [REDACTED], when we were trying to arrange a meeting between Commissioner Moedas and IBM's [REDACTED]. Unfortunately, it proved to be impossible to align diaries on that occasion.

[REDACTED] will be visiting Brussels again on October 9-11, and would very much appreciate an opportunity to meet Commissioner Moedas. Possible topics for discussion could include research, high performance computing, cognitive computing and artificial intelligence. Can you tell me if a meeting on those dates would be possible?

Regards,

[REDACTED]
