

Dinner hosted by CEPS Energy Climate House
“Delivering a CCS and CCU Agenda for Europe”

Moderated by [REDACTED], Director, CEPS Energy Climate House

Venue: Maison de Cygne (Grand Place)<sup>1</sup>

31st January 2019

19:30 – 22:00

As part of the work stream on CCS and CCU, CEPS Energy Climate House is holding a small and informal dinner discussion. The dinner will be actively moderated and is designed in a way to ensure real debate and controversy where different and conflicting opinions are presented.

Following an introduction by Bjørn Haugstad, Director General, Ministry of Petroleum and Energy, Norway, and one or two very short responses, there will be open debate. Each participant will have the opportunity to speak up.

Guest list:

[REDACTED], Senior Vice-President for Wind and Low Carbon Solutions, Equinor

[REDACTED], Vice President Europe, Energy Transition, Air Liquide

[REDACTED], Vice President, Head of Technology Strategy, Group CTO, ArcelorMittal Group

[REDACTED], Programme Manager, Port of Rotterdam, PORTHOS project

[REDACTED], Director, CEPS Energy Climate House

[REDACTED], Research Fellow, CEPS Energy Climate House

[REDACTED] ley, Head of Resource Efficiency unit, DG Grow, European Commission

Bjørn Haugstad, Director General, Ministry of Petroleum and Energy, Norway,

[REDACTED], Head of Brussels Office, Equinor

[REDACTED], Advisor, Bellona Europe

[REDACTED], Transition Energiser – Senior Energy Consultant, Pale Blue, ACORN project

[REDACTED], Head of the project's Business Development, Northern Lights project

[REDACTED], Executive Adviser for Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA), Global CCS Institute

[REDACTED], EU Affairs Manager, ExxonMobil

[REDACTED], Manager Environmental Policy & Planning, Exxon Mobil Corporation

[REDACTED], Director Public Affairs, Global Environmental Sustainability, HeidelbergCement AG

[REDACTED], Low Carbon Technologies, DG Energy C.1, European Commission

---

<sup>1</sup> Reservation in the name of CEPS and/or [REDACTED].