Your application for access to Frontex documents

Dear Ms Tombini,

With reference to your application registered on 5 August 2019, for which the timelines were suspended on the same date and - after a commonly acceptable solution was found to consider your application as two individual applications to be processed successively- reinstated also on 5 September 2019, resulting of which in your application 1 you are asking for access to:

A spreadsheet with the chartered return operations (forced and voluntary) coordinated by Frontex in 2017 and 2018 from EU countries to non-EU countries, specifying:

- Destination
- Date of departure
- Organising Member State
- Participating States
- Monitors/observers on board
- Total number of 3rd country nationals returned -Type of operation -Total paid -Costs paid by each Member State and Frontex,

I am pleased to inform you that Frontex can grant you access to the documents, which you are herewith attached.

Kindly be reminded that the copyright of these documents rests with Frontex and making these works, available to third parties in this or another form without prior authorisation of Frontex is prohibited. Please also note that Frontex does not assume liability stemming from the use of the documents.

Yours sincerely,
