I got the topic that [REDACTED] would like to address during the meeting:

1. Europe fit for the digital age -
2. Artificial Intelligence -

It is also likely that he may share some considerations on copyright.

Dear Ms [REDACTED],

Thank you very much for your message and the confirmation.
We have a slight change in terms of planning for the visit of [REDACTED], it just happened unfortunately and I sincerely apologize in advance, is there a chance the meeting could take place on January 20th instead please?

I understand you have just discussed with [REDACTED] who explored this option with you.

If this is not an option, which we would absolutely understand, we are going to do our best to have the meeting secured on the 21st. Apologies for this last minute change.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your message below addressed to Commissioner Vestager in which you request a meeting between her and [REDACTED].

I am pleased to be able to offer a 30-minute slot on 21 January 2020 starting at 10:00.

We will need to receive the following details of all persons attending the meeting: full name, nationality, date of birth and either a passport or an ID number of all the meeting participants in order to ensure a smooth reception upon arrival in the Berlaymont building (please see attached table).

Should you have further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

I hope this email finds you well.

Thank you once again for making the call with Vice-President Vestager which happens a couple of weeks back and for an ongoing dialogue.

[REDACTED] will be travelling to Brussels on January 20-21, 2019. He would be delighted to meet the Vice-President on that occasion to discuss on how Google can engage and support the European Commission's priorities in the new mandate, beyond the competition law. He would be keen to exchange with the Vice-President on some of the most pressing economic, social and policy issues related to the digital technology, innovation, artificial intelligence and digital skills.

Would you please be able to help us securing this meeting? We'd of course adjust to your busy agendas.

Thanks for considering.

With kind regards, [REDACTED]
