Brussels,

Dear ,

I would like to thank you for your congratulatory letter on the occasion of my appointment as European Commissioner for Health and Food Safety and express my gratitude for your support.

The Farm to Fork Strategy that I will present in Spring this year is an opportunity to address the challenges of sustainable food production and food consumption. It will require close cooperation between all actors of our society: citizens, companies, civil society, policy makers and many others. I count on your commitment to contribute to deliver more sustainable Europe for all of us.

I look very much forward to working with you in the coming years.
