Dear Mr Samsom,
I hope this email finds you well.
[REDACTED] Google and Alphabet, will be travelling to Brussels on January 20. He would be delighted to have the opportunity to meet Executive Vice-President Timmermans to start a constructive dialogue on how Google can support the European Green Deal strategy [REDACTED] would be particularly keen to engage and discuss Google's efforts and investments in the field of sustainability.
Could you please help us check the availability of the Executive Vice-President for a meeting with [REDACTED] on Monday, January 20? We currently have a meeting in Berlaymont with the Executive Vice President Vestager at 15.00, so perhaps a meeting directly afterwards would be appropriate. We will of course adjust to the busy agenda.
Thank you for considering.
Kind regards,
