Subject: RE: Request by seven CEOs of Europe's largest reinsurance companies for a meeting with Commission President Von der Leyen on 4 March in Brussels (Ares(2020)135622)

Dear Valeria,

Thank you very much for your formal confirmation and sorry for my late acknowledgement of your message.

In the end, the visit was cancelled due to travel restrictions because of COVID19.

I am looking forward to our further contacts and would in particular be grateful, if you could keep me informed as soon as your engagement plans for COP26 in Glasgow is firming up and you have a better idea about the dates at which relevant debates on sustainable finance will be organised. I recall from our bilateral meeting that you might have a clearer idea by end of March and it would be great to get early conformation of dates if the Commission would be interested in securing C-suit interlocutors for the public discussions that are planned at the COP26.

In this context, I would also like to inform you that Insurance Europe has received the mandate from its members to work on a strategic plan for the green deal with a special focus on green investment. The relevant meeting with our members will take place at the end of April and I would be keen on keeping you posted early May on the role that our industry can play in supporting the Commission's green deal moving forward.

Kind regards

Dear Ms [REDACTED]

President von der Leyen would like to thank you for your e-mail in which you request a meeting on behalf of seven CEOs of the largest European Insurance companies during a visit to Brussels on 4 March 2020 to discuss some of her key policy ambitions and explain how the European insurance industry can contribute to them.

Unfortunately, as already anticipated in our bilateral meeting, despite her interest in meeting your CEOs, the President is unable to give a positive reply to your request due to existing commitments on the day in question.

This email is a formal confirmation of our previous exchanges.

Yours sincerely,

Valeria Miceli

Subject: Request by seven CEOs of Europe's largest reinsurance companies for a meeting with Commission President Von der Leyen on 4 March in Brussels

To the office of Commission President Von der Leyen: dear Mrs [REDACTED],

A group of seven CEOs of the largest European Reinsurance Companies would like to use the opportunity of a Brussels visit on 4 March to discuss some of her key policy ambitions with the President of the Commission Ursula Von der Leyen. They would appreciate the opportunity to explain how the European reinsurance industry can contribute to them.

For her ambition of a European Green Deal, reinsurers can effectively contribute not only as investors in the transition, but also by providing appropriate coverage for climate risks, helping to address the climate risk protection gap.

Regarding her ambition for a stronger Europe in the world, with a geopolitical Commission, reinsurers would like to share their challenges as international providers of risk cover. They are currently global market leaders, but this position is under serious threat.

Finally, regarding her ambition of a Europe fit for the digital age, the reinsurance industry can be instrumental in supporting the Commission's efforts to minimise cyber threat exposure, by providing cover for cyber risk. They also share the Commission's vision of a more digitised, and still ethical, approach for the future.

The following seven CEOs, who form the European Reinsurance Advisory Board (RAB), would be available for a meeting on 4 March either in the morning or in the afternoon at her convenience.

- Swiss Re: Christian Mumenthaler, CEO (Chair of the RAB)
- Munich Re: Torsten Jeworrek, CEO of reinsurance
- Hannover Re: Jean-Jacques Henchoz, Chairman of the Board
- SCOR: Dennis Kessler, Chairman of the Board
- Partner Re: Emmanuel Clarke, CEO
- Gen Re: Winfried Heinen, Chairman of the Board
- Lloyd's: John Neal, CEO

Thank you in advance for considering this meeting request and I am very much looking forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
