Subject: Request for a meeting

Dear Ms Tovsak-Pleterski,

Dear Ms Miceli,

Your colleague, Jens Flosdorff, was so kind to let me know that based on your portfolio responsibilities in the President's cabinet, you would be the most appropriate persons to approach for a meeting on how the European Insurance sector can contribute to President Von der Leyen's ambitions for Europe.

I am representing Insurance Europe, the representative European insurance and reinsurance federation. Our members generate premium income of more than €1 200bn annually, directly employ over 950 000 people and invest over €10 200bn in the economy.

In addition, I would also be keen to provide you with more background on below meeting request by seven CEOs of Europe's top reinsurance companies to Commission President Von der Leyen.

I would be available for a meeting with you on the below dates, but would obviously be flexible in case these dates are not convenient for you.

3 February 15:00-17:30

7 February 09:00-12:00 and 14:30-17:00

10 February all afternoon

12 February all morning

I am looking very much forward to your response and hope that a meeting will be possible.

Thanks in advance for considering my request.

Kind regards

Subject: Request by seven CEOs of Europe's largest reinsurance companies for a meeting with Commission President Von der Leyen on 4 March in Brussels

To the office of Commission President Von der Leyen: dear Mrs [REDACTED]

A group of seven CEOs of the largest European Reinsurance Companies would like to use the opportunity of a Brussels visit on 4 March to discuss some of her key policy ambitions with the President of the Commission Ursula Von der Leyen. They would appreciate the opportunity to explain how the European reinsurance industry can contribute to them.

For her ambition of a European Green Deal, reinsurers can effectively contribute not only as investors in the transition, but also by providing appropriate coverage for climate risks, helping to address the climate risk protection gap.

Regarding her ambition for a stronger Europe in the world, with a geopolitical Commission, reinsurers would like to share their challenges as international providers of risk cover. They are currently global market leaders, but this position is under serious threat.

Finally, regarding her ambition of a Europe fit for the digital age, the reinsurance industry can be instrumental in supporting the Commission's efforts to minimise cyber threat exposure, by providing cover for cyber risk. They also share the Commission's vision of a more digitised, and still ethical, approach for the future.

The following seven CEOs, who form the European Reinsurance Advisory Board (RAB), would be available for a meeting on 4 March either in the morning or in the afternoon at her convenience.

- Swiss Re: Christian Mumenthaler, CEO (Chair of the RAB)
- Munich Re: Torsten Jeworrek, CEO of reinsurance
- Hannover Re: Jean-Jacques Henchoz, Chairman of the Board
- SCOR: Dennis Kessler, Chairman of the Board
- Partner Re: Emmanuel Clarke, CEO
- Gen Re: Winfried Heinen, Chairman of the Board
- Lloyd's: John Neal, CEO

Thank you in advance for considering this meeting request and I am very much looking forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]
