Dear [REDACTED],

To return to your kind offer of a meeting with our senior management, may I suggest a slot in the second half of January (for example 16 or 23 January in the morning?)

The purpose of the meeting would be to inform you of our latest activities, especially those which align with the von der Leyen Commission's declared priorities (AI and the human factor, cyber-resilient networks, sustainable IT, next-generation power sources, support for start-ups, e-skill programmes...). It would also be helpful to hear your view on how Samsung can best continue to drive its profile as a good European corporate citizen.

We look forward to hearing from you.

All the best, [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Many thanks for getting back to us in what is obviously a very busy week.

I am grateful for your offer of a meeting on the key digital priorities and developments. The meeting with the DG Connect DDG was very useful (I hope for both sides).

With your permission I will consult internally and come back to you and your office with some possible dates.

Thanks again and best regards, [REDACTED]

Subject: Fwd: Samsung Electronics / Request for a meeting

Dear [REDACTED],

[REDACTED] office passed this request on to me but due to the short notice it was overlooked. Sorry for that. I'm aware that Mr [REDACTED] met with senior management in DG Connect and I have seen a report of the discussion.

Samsung is a major player in many markets and we would obviously appreciate Samsung's thoughts on the digital and other priority agendas (green deal, industry policy, etc) of the incoming Commission. Please let me know if there is another occasion when a meeting would be convenient.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Dear [REDACTED] (if I may),

On behalf of [REDACTED] Global Government Relations, I would like to request a meeting with you concerning how Samsung can support the von der Leyen Commission in achieving its headline goals over the coming five years.

Based in Seoul, [REDACTED] is in Brussels this week Tuesday 3 and Wednesday 4 December in order to sound out the EU institutions regarding EU policy priorities and possible partnership opportunities and synergies.

With our thanks in advance and best regards,
