Subject: Your request for access to documents – Notification 2020/65/D – GestDem 2020/3558.

Dear Mr. Schindler,

I refer to your request of 10 June 2020, registered on the same day under the above mentioned GestDem reference number.

Your request concerns the comments issued by the Commission related to the “draft law on combating right-wing extremism and hate crime”, notified by Germany under notification 2020/65/D in the framework of Directive (EU) 2015/1535.¹

Having analysed your request in the light of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 regarding public access to European Parliament, Council and Commission documents², we consider access to the requested document can be granted.

Please note that, as far as the disclosed Commission document is concerned, you may reuse it free of charge for non-commercial and commercial purposes provided that the source is acknowledged and that you do not distort the original meaning or message of the document. Please note also that the Commission does not assume liability stemming from the reuse³.

Yours sincerely,

(e-signed)

Giuseppe CASELLA
Head of Unit

Enclosure: 1

¹ Directive (EU) 2015/1535 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 9 September 2015 laying down a procedure for the provision of information in the field of technical regulations and of rules on Information Society services, OJ L 241 of 17.9.2015, p.1

² OJ L145 of 31.5.2001, p. 43.

³ For further details, see the Commission Decision of 12 December 2011 (2011/833/EU), OJ L 330/39 of 14 December 2011. In line with the second paragraph, point (b) of its Article 2, this Decision does not apply to documents for which the Commission is not in a position to allow their reuse in view of intellectual property rights of third parties.
