

Twenty-five years later.

The Dayton Agreement and the European Pathway for Bosnia and Herzegovina

Date: Friday 18 December 2020, 9.30-13.30

Place: Embassy of the Republic of Italy, Sarajevo, by Zoom

Chairperson: [REDACTED], Institute of Foreign Affairs, Italy

Welcome of the authorities:

H.E. Luigi Di Maio – Minister of Foreign Affairs of Italy

H.E. Bisera Turković - Minister of Foreign Affairs of BiH

H.E. Olivér Várhelyi – Commissioner for European Neighborhood Policy and Enlargement Negotiations

H.E. Dunja Mijatović – Commissioner for Human Rights, Council of Europe

I Session

Groups, individuals, territory and the multinational federal State: (untying the knots)

1. Origins of the concept of ‘constituent peoples’: from socialist federalism to ethno-federalism? - [REDACTED], University of Ljubljana

2. BiH as a multi-national State: Constituent peoples and territory in the Dayton Constitution - [REDACTED], University of Graz

Discussants:

- [REDACTED], University of Antwerp
- [REDACTED], University of East Sarajevo

II Session

Bosnia and Herzegovina and the integration processes from Dayton to the EU

3. Guaranteeing individual rights while accommodating vital group interests: European standards from ECHR and FCNM, [REDACTED], University of Ljubljana

4. Economic Integration and internal market: EU and BiH compared, [REDACTED] University of Sarajevo

5. EU Values and Priorities for Bosnia and Herzegovina and its’ Constitution: How To Move Forward?, [REDACTED], University of Trento

Discussants

- [REDACTED], University of Sarajevo
- [REDACTED] – IRMO, Zagreb
- [REDACTED], University of Milano-Bicocca

Closing remarks:

Amb. Johann Sattler – EUSR in BiH

Amb. Edin Dilberović – Direction for EU Integration, BiH – Director

Amb. Nicola Minasi – Embassy of the Republic of Italy