Dear [REDACTED],

I thought we had send the documentation last week except the biographies. I will check tomorrow morning. Only the presentation has been updated but without any significant changes (e.g. update of the impact of COVID-19 on our sector). We can resend the whole package tomorrow morning with the biographies.

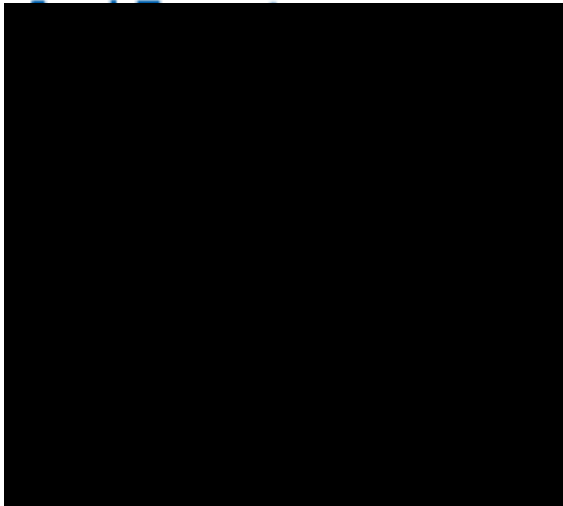

I have prepared the meeting with our CEOs last Friday. Their proposal is that after a short introduction on the impact of COVID-19 on our sector (as proposed by your Head of Cabinet) the CEOs would ask Ms Vestager which measures are being prepared to support the steel industry in the short, mid and long-term. We could then enter into a discussion.

It would be great if the Executive Vice-President could have the presentation next to her during the call in case the CEOs wish to refer to the one or other slide. However, we should not put the presentation on the screen as it would be at the expense of seeing each other.

I hope this will be fine with you.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear all,

For the preparatory meeting we only need the presentation. The other documents are background information (documents the Commission received before on the individual files).

Kind regards,
