

Short summary

Mme Geneviève Tuts, head of cabinet of Commissioner Reynders, met with the FEB (Fédération des entreprises de Belgique) on the upcoming Commission's legislative initiative on sustainable corporate governance, upon their invitation.

Mrs Tuts presented and then discussed with the participants the issues of corporate due diligence and of directors' duties. The respective roles of governments and companies in relation to crucial challenges like climate change were discussed, as well as the possible practical implications of the upcoming proposal on businesses, in particular SMEs.