Dear Ms Vaughan,

Subject: Your application for access to documents – GESTDEM 2021/7584

We refer to your e-mail of 1 December 2021, in which you make a request for access to documents, registered on the next day under the above-mentioned reference number. We apologise for the delay in dealing with your request and thank you for your patience.

You request access to:

All documentation, including but not limited to attendance lists, agendas, background papers, minutes/notes and email correspondence about or summarising, the following meeting:

1. Meeting between BusinessEurope and Commissioner Mairead McGuinness on 09/11/2021

Documents and exceptions

We have found five documents falling under the scope of your request; they are listed on the last page of this letter, and those that can be released are attached to this letter. Documents 1, 2 and 5 are partially released.

Following an examination under the provisions of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 regarding public access to documents, we have concluded that full disclosure of the rest of the documents is prevented by exceptions to the right of access laid down in Article 4 of this Regulation.

A complete disclosure of the identified documents is prevented by the exception concerning the protection of privacy and the integrity of the individual outlined in Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, because they contain the names and contact information of the Commission staff members not pertaining to the senior management, the names and contact details of other natural persons, and other information relating to identified or identifiable natural persons.

Article 9(1)(b) of the Data Protection Regulation does not allow the transmission of these personal data, except if you prove that it is necessary to have the data transmitted to you for a specific purpose in the public interest and where there is no reason to assume that the legitimate interests of the data subject might be prejudiced. In your request, you do not express any particular interest to have access to these personal data nor do you put forward arguments to establish the necessity to have the data transmitted for a specific purpose in the public interest.

Consequently, I conclude that, pursuant to Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, access cannot be granted to the personal data contained in the requested documents, as the need to obtain access thereto for a purpose in the public interest has not been substantiated. This exception applies partially to documents 1, 2, and 5, and covers entirely document 4, which cannot therefore be released at all.

Document 3 contains information, the release of which could potentially harm the commercial interests of companies or stakeholders, as putting this information in the public domain would affect their competitive position on the market by revealing details on their know-how or business plans to the public at large. Consequently, the exception laid down in Article 4(2) first indent of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 applies to these documents.

As a consequence, document 3 is covered in its entirety by the exceptions in Article 4 of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 and cannot be disclosed.

Final remarks

The exceptions laid down in Article 4(2) and 4(3) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 apply unless there is an overriding public interest in disclosure. Such an interest must, firstly, be public and, secondly, outweigh the harm caused by disclosure. We note that you do not put forward any elements to demonstrate the existence of an overriding public interest in disclosure of the documents requested. Nor have we, based on our own analysis, been able to identify any elements capable of demonstrating the existence of a public interest that would override the need to protect the interests under Article 4(2) and (3) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001.

Please note that the disclosure of documents originating from third parties is without prejudice to the rules on intellectual property, which may limit your right to reproduce or exploit the released documents without the agreement of the originator, who may hold an intellectual property right on them. The European Commission does not assume any responsibility from their reuse.

As regards the minutes of meetings, please note that they are drawn up for internal use and they solely reflect the authors' interpretation of the interventions made and do not set out any official position of the third parties to which the document refers, which were not consulted on its content. They do not reflect the position of the Commission and cannot be quoted as such.

In accordance with Article 7(2) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, you are entitled to make a confirmatory application requesting the Commission to review this position. Such a confirmatory application should be addressed within 15 working days upon receipt of this letter to the Secretary-General of the Commission at the following address:
