Dear Mr Stengg,

I am writing you to follow-up on our meeting as the CCI delegation with your cabinet member colleagues this week and my below email .

As discussed we would really appreciate to have the chance to hold a meeting with you together with the rest of the delegation to exchange on the policy perspectives as regards the implementation of Copyright Directive (in particular Art 17) and the DSA proposals of the Commission, in particular as regards the importance of these legal framework for the recovery and sustainable growth of CCI.

If you can perhaps provide me with couple of possible dates according to your availability, I would then check and coordinate with my other colleagues to confirm and set the meeting.

Thank you and kind regards

Dear Alina,

Many thanks again for meeting with the delegation of CCI on Wednesday on behalf of [REDACTED] for us to present you the new EY study we have launched and to discuss on the possible next steps. Your useful insight and kind interest on the issues we raised were really appreciated by all of us.

As next steps, I will also contact [REDACTED] as you suggested, to follow-up on our exchange regarding the reflection of cultural sectors in national recovery plans. I will also arrange a separate meeting with Werner Stengg, as we agreed, to have further discussion on the policy framework regarding DSA and the Copyright Directive.

The meetings we had with all (E)VPs and Commissioners were very encouraging, and we can see that there is a clear intention within the Commission to adequately address the difficulties faced by cultural and creative sectors during the evaluation and discussions on national recovery plans. You can find attached the press release we published as GESAC following those meetings.

I wish you a good weekend and look forward to staying in touch.

Kind regards

[REDACTED]
