Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email. Mr Berrigan would be pleased to meet [REDACTED] however, we recommend that all meetings are virtual rather than in person at this time. Mr Berrigan has availability on the 26th and 27th January:

26th January at 11.00 hrs

26th January at 16.30 hrs

27th January at 12.00 hrs

27th January at 17.00 hrs

These are Brussels times. I hope that one of these slots will be convenient for [REDACTED].

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject: Meeting request - 25 January

Dear [REDACTED],

A very happy New Year, I hope you had a good Christmas.

I am writing in connection with [REDACTED] visit to Brussels for the Annual Financial Services Conference that we co-host on 25 January and which DG Fisma has kindly supported again this year.

Although the conference has moved to an online format, [REDACTED] is currently still planning to come to Brussels to do [REDACTED] session from here and, although it is short notice, wonders whether you might have time for a meeting then?

[REDACTED] would be pleased to give you a sense of the business environment as we go through the fifth Covid wave and would appreciate the opportunity to discuss the policy priorities. Of the many moving policy parts, [REDACTED] is most focused at present on the prudential – capital and resolution – and aspects of the markets agenda – CSDR, MiFID.

I hope that this might be possible and my very best wishes for a productive and healthy 2022.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]
