Hello [REDACTED]

Thank you for sharing this great news. Apologies for the delay; I was on a flight.

I meet with Commissioner Dombrovskis's team at 3pm local time on Monday, Mar 5.

I am also available all day Tuesday, Mar 6 for a meeting in Brussels as well.

I am flexible and happy to accommodate your preferred time.

Regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

Following your request for a meeting with our Cabinet, I am pleased to inform you that the meeting could take place with our Cabinet Member Mr Aare Järvan.

I understand you will be meeting someone from the Cabinet of VP Dombrovskis. When would this take place? If possible, we could try to hold the meeting with Mr Järvan either before or after this other meeting you have in the Berlaymont. Would probably be easier for you.

Kind regards,

Dear Vice President Ansip, Mr. Lepassaar, Mr. Jarvan, Ms. Kloc,

My name is [REDACTED] a fintech using blockchain and virtual currency technology to improve global payments. We are working with over 100 financial institutions to enable real-time remittances and corporate payments.

[REDACTED]

I have noted Mr. Ansip's thoughtful leadership on blockchain technology within the European Commission.

Meeting Request: I will be in Brussels on March 5 - 6 and would be pleased to meet to discuss:

- Insight on how blockchain and virtual currency have evolved from consumer to enterprise tools.
- Views on regulatory frameworks to contain consumer and market risk of virtual currency.
- Overview of Ripple's solutions for financial institutions.

Do let me know if you or others would be interested in a discussion.

Regards,
