Dear Mrs Gauer,

On behalf of AECA (American European Community Association), we hope this e-mail finds you and your team in good health.

AECA provides a neutral forum for lively and informed debate on key current topics for members of the international business, political, government and diplomatic communities. Our meetings offer unique opportunities for leaders to share their experience and to discuss and exchange views and information on issues of mutual concern. The discussions at the meetings are off-the-record, under the Chatham House rule, with no press and no reports. Attendance at our events is by personal invitation only as our aim is to bring together a diverse and select audience.

Please find attached an invitation from our CEO, to speak at a high-level AECA conference-luncheon to discuss “The Recovery and Resilience Facility (RRF) for the Next Generation EU: A unique opportunity that must be taken quickly, and carefully”. As per the invitation, we have proposed to hold this event in-person, during the month of May or June.

Please be welcome to contact us should you have any questions about our invitation, the format proposed for this event or about our International Association.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
