Dear

On behalf of I herewith send you this email.

Thank you for the meeting last week and sending the slides of the presentation you gave with respect to the preparation for a derogation.

We appreciate the work you have done. As agreed upon we discussed internally further the content of the several elements in the preparation for a derogation and the questions you had during this meeting.

As a follow up we herewith send you our general response and our reply on the questions you raised (see enclosure), We would like to share in depth our views on the several elements in a meeting. Since the time schedule is tight it would be most welcomed if we can schedule a meeting next week.

Thank you very much in advance.

Kind regards,

Please find included the slides of yesterday's meeting.

As agreed, we will pursue along that line and are awaiting your concrete proposals on the various points.

Kind regards,
