MR MARIO DRAGHI
President of the European Central Bank
Eurotower
Kaiserstrasse 29
DE-60311 Frankfurt am Main

Subject: Law on the macro-prudential mandate of national authorities

Dear Mr Draghi

Following the letter sent on 30 January 2013 regarding the Draft provisions of the Law on the macro-prudential mandate of national authorities, please find our further explanation below.

Due to certain procedural and legal issues brought up during the consultation with the supervisors and other competent authorities, some provisions of the Draft Law on the macro-prudential mandate of national authorities may have to be redrafted.

Therefore we would like to kindly ask you to hold the reviewing process of the above mentioned Draft, as the redrafted text will be sent to European Central Bank as soon as possible.

Ministry of finance sincerely apologizes for the inconveniences, that may have been caused to the European Central Bank.

Should you have any questions do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours sincerely,

MSc Andrej Šircelj
STATE SECRETARY
