

Dear Mr. Ocelik,

We are writing concerning your request for access to Commission documents registered on 20 October 2022 under case number 2022/5970.

The handling of your request involves the assessment of a high number of documents originating from third parties. The analysis of these documents, together with the need to consult the third parties concerned in accordance with Article 4(4) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, cannot be expected to be completed within the normal time limits set out in Article 7 of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001.

In line with Article 6(2) of Regulation \(EC\) No 1049/2001 regarding public access to documents, we invite you to send us more detailed information on the documents you request, such as topics, persons or bodies who drafted the documents, references, dates or periods during which the documents would have been drawn up, etc.

We received a very wide range of inputs from different stakeholders and related to different topics addressed in the study. In this context, we could probably address better your needs if you describe with more details your needs.

The JRC recorded all the details of its work on Data centres<sup>1</sup> and you will find there all the reports on the work, the questionnaire and the meeting under “documents”. The different consultations are detailed in the reports.

More specifically, we would like to know if you are interested in specific inputs from specific organisations or specific types in the list:

- Industry / Original Equipment Manufacturers
- Associations
- Consultancy
- NGOs

Additionally, which type of comments and feedbacks are you interested in, classified under some of the EU GPP topics below:

- Scope definition
- Market
- Environmental impacts
- Data Centre performance
- IT system performance
- Mechanical and Electrical (M&E) system performance

Finally, I would like to underline that you can contact the Project Team through internet, either through “contact us”, or personally with the e-mail address.

The 15 working days to reply to your request will start running only when you reply to this message. If you do not reply within 7 working days, we will close this case in line with our detailed rules for the application of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001.

Kind regards,

JRC Access to Documents Team
