Dear [REDACTED],

I hope you are keeping well.

As I believe Mr Berrigan is aware, MFA launched our Brussels Office last month. This our first office opening outside the U.S. and we are hugely excited to show our commitment to the EU. We were sorry to miss him at the launch event but entirely understand how demanding his schedule is. We were excited that Isabel Benjumea MEP could join us to discuss her vision of CMU and priorities for AIFMD.

Now that we are established here, I wanted to explore whether Seán might 30 minutes before the summer break, or even in late August to meet with me. I'd love to brief him on some of our plans and exchange views on the regulatory priorities for the remainder of this Commission mandate.

Now that we have boots on the ground here in Brussels, I hope that the MFA can be more of a sustained resource to the European Commission in sharing views and expertise of the alternative asset management sector. This said, I promise to be very respectful of the Director General's time, and that of his full staff at FISMA.

Ever grateful,
