 – The Way Forward

Dear Madam,

I would like to invite you as representative of AMAZON Europe to give a presentation at the Customs 2020 High-Level Seminar on “e-Commerce – the Way Forward” which will take place on 13 October 2021 in a virtual format. The seminar is hosted by the Slovenian Customs Administration in the framework of the Slovenian Presidency of the Council of the European Union, and the Commission. It aims to address the impacts of the recent changes and policy developments in the area of e-commerce and take stock of the remaining challenges that customs authorities continue facing in respect of the growing volumes of low value imports.

Your presentation will take place in the afternoon session of the seminar, which will focus on the private sector perspective. You are kindly invited to present your experiences and views on e-commerce implementation and potential future developments and to participate in the following discussion.

I would appreciate if you confirm your participation by e-mail to [redacted], [redacted]@gov.si until 3 October 2021.

Yours faithfully,
