Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Following your exchange with Ms Papandropoulos I am pleased to be able to offer you a 45-minute meeting slot on Monday 12 December at 15h30 at our offices in Berlaymont building. I would appreciate if you could let me know at your earliest convenience if this time slot is suitable for you.

To ensure a smooth reception upon arrival in the Berlaymont building, please find attached a document that needs to be filled in with the all visitor's details, so I can issue the V-passes.

For transparency purposes, this meeting will be published in the Transparency Register of the European Commission. The Cabinet does not intend to communicate actively on the content of this meeting. However, in line with Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, minutes can be made accessible to the public upon request (without any disclosure of protected interests).

Should you have further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,

Je ne pense pas qu'il soit nécessaire de contacter directement l'équipe du Chief Economist qui a accès aux études économiques soumises à la COMP. Mais vous pouvez toujours proposer une réunion

Bonjour Pénélope, Ciao Michele

Please note that a short e-meeting could be organized with you next week on either Thursday PM or Friday AM (that is November 24th or 25th) to discuss the economical analysis on CBER that was transmitted to you both last week. On our side, we would propose to bring both the CMA CGM team (you met in October) plus [REDACTED] from Analysis Group (who led our economic analysis).

Many thanks to confirm whether the date and time proposed suit your agenda.

Best,
[REDACTED]
