Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for your interest.

Florian Denis will briefly call you tomorrow to discuss the options: would a webex call at 3 PM, ok for you?

I take that opportunity to tell you that, since 1st September, Patricia Reilly has replaced [REDACTED], as Head of Cabinet.

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your response.

It is really a pity the Commissioner cannot accept our invitation on 7 October to participate (virtually) in the ERT CFO Platform meeting.

15 CFOs of the largest European industrial companies will be present in person and the German State Secretary for Economic Affairs and Climate as well as [REDACTED] the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB), will take part in the meeting.

I'm sharing attached the agenda and participants list for your information, in case the Commissioner's schedule would become available on 7 October.

If this occasion does not work out, we would like to understand – as requested by [REDACTED] the CFO Platform, [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] letter – if the Commissioner would be willing to make time available to exchange with a Delegation of ERT CFOs at another time of her convenience?

I am putting in CC also [REDACTED] who is aware of the very useful exchanges which took place last year, when the Commissioner herself had requested a new meeting in 2022.

The ERT CFOs could and are more than willing to share actual experiences and impact of the current energy situation to large and smaller companies in the European ecosystem and provide practical examples and suggestions how to improve reporting standards, cross sectorial and cross country.

We look forward to your response and are of course at your disposal to discuss date options over the phone.

Kind regards,

I regret to inform you that due to already existing commitments in her agenda, it will not be possible for the Commissioner to accept your invitation.

Wishing you every success with the event.

Kindest Regards,
