Dear Mr Sabido,

Subject: Your application for access to documents – Ref EASE No 2023/1724

We refer to your request for access to documents, registered on 20/03/2023 under the abovementioned reference number.

Your request concerns “a list of all lobby meetings (including phone calls, conference calls, video conferences etc) held by your DG since 1 January 2022 where the reform of the EU electricity market design was discussed. The list should include the names of the individuals and organisations participating; the date; and any minutes / notes produced. I would additionally like to receive any emails, policy papers, or other correspondence related to the reform of the EU electricity market design between your DG and lobbyists during this time period.”

The documents falling into the scope of your request are enclosed. Please note that in line with Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, in the attached documents, all personal data has been redacted. In your request, you do not express any particular interest to have access to these personal data nor do you put forward any arguments to establish the necessity to have the data transmitted for a specific purpose in the public interest.

Please note that documents originating from third parties are disclosed to you based on Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001. However, this disclosure is without prejudice to the rules on intellectual property, which may limit your right to reproduce or exploit the released documents without the agreement of the originator, who may hold an intellectual property right on them. The European Commission does not assume any responsibility from their reuse.

Please note that access is granted to minutes of a meeting with external parties. This document was drawn up for internal use under the responsibility of the relevant service of the Secretariat-General. It solely reflects the author's interpretation of the interventions made and does not set out any official position of the third parties to which the document... refers, which was not consulted on its content. It does not reflect the position of the Commission and cannot be quoted as such.

In case you disagree with this position, you are entitled, in accordance with Article 7(2) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, to submit a confirmatory application requesting the Commission to review this position. Such a confirmatory application should be addressed within 15 working days upon receipt of this letter to the Secretariat-General of the Commission at the following address:

European Commission
Secretary-General Transparency unit SG-C.1
