Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for this! I hope it is not too much of a trouble for you.

The workshop will be a hybrid one. The face-to-face meeting is taking place at the Institute of Computer Science of the Polish Academy of Sciences (IPI PAN) in Warsaw. The online one will be accessible via Zoom. The eTranslation presentation is tentatively scheduled at around 11.00 a.m. local time.

It's up to you to choose if you prefer to present via Zoom or live. If you decide to travel to Warsaw, your ticket and accommodation can be covered by the local organizer. (I am attending online.)

If you don't mind, I will put you in contact with [REDACTED], the ELRC NAP in Poland who is organizing the event for your further arrangements.

About your presentation, we have been using the usual template, adapted, if necessary, per country. You can find it attached and use as you wish.

Thanks again,

Best wishes,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

I've got a bit scrambled here – in the end it seems I am the most available. Can you give me the details? Is it live or remote? I'd prefer live, of course.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

I hope this finds you well.

I'm contacting you about the upcoming ELRC workshop in Warsaw, Poland, scheduled for September 21 as a hybrid event.

I'd like to ask if a member of your team would be interested and available to present eTranslation, either online or on-site in Warsaw.

I understand that the ELRC NAP who organizes the event locally, [REDACTED], has already contacted [REDACTED] whom she knows. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that he is not available and this is why she asked me to check with you if another DGT member is able to deliver the presentation. It doesn't necessarily need to be a Polish speaker. The presentation can be delivered in English.

Thank you in advance for your consideration!

Best regards,

[REDACTED]
