Dear Commissioner McGuinness,

I hope this email finds you well.

I am writing to ask if you would be available for a short meeting in the margins of the upcoming Eurofi Conference in Santiago di Compostela between 13-15 September.

I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to provide you with an update on our member’s current priorities as well as exchange views with you on the latest developments in EU banking and wholesale capital market regulation.

I will be attending the conference on Thursday the 14th and would join us should you be available to meet on that day.

We would course agree on a more detailed agenda with your office. (in copy) is happy to assist with scheduling.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards
Please note, as of 1 June 2023, AFME’s London office has relocated to the above address.

The Association for Financial Markets in Europe (AFME) represents a broad range of European and global participants in the wholesale financial markets. Its members comprise pan-European and global banks as well as key regional banks and other financial institutions. AFME advocates stable, competitive and sustainable European financial markets, that support economic growth and benefit society. AFME is registered on the EU Transparency Register, registration number 65110063986-76. Our Privacy Policy is available here.

Subscribe to AFME Mailing Lists
Get all the latest updates from AFME, including news, publications, data and events
Customise the updates you receive

The Association for Financial Markets in Europe (AFME) represents a broad range of European and global participants in the wholesale financial markets. Its members comprise pan-European and global banks as well as key regional banks and other financial institutions. AFME advocates stable, competitive and sustainable European financial markets, that support economic growth and benefit society. AFME is registered on the EU Transparency Register, registration number 65110063986-76.