On either of these dates you can have any time up to 17:30 (so it doesn't go much beyond 18:00 hrs) CET.

If they are still not possible I will suggest more dates.

Best,

Good morning

Unfortunately neither of those are possible, would you be able to suggest any other slots?

Many thanks,

Thank you for your email. Mr Berrigan's calendar is already full for April, the latter half of May looks more promising. Would either Tuesday 25th May or Thursday 27th May at 15:30 CET (14:30 UK time) for both days be convenient for you?

Kind regards,

Dear [Name],

I may have to have the meeting as a conference call as MS teams is not yet integrated with calendars which we work on behalf of. Are you able to send MS Teams invites or is a conference call ok?
