Dear [REDACTED],

Many thanks for your prompt answer. On the 1st of March, I could offer 15:00-15:30.

If this is suitable, please send me back the attached document with all the participants (if more) in the meeting so that I am able to do the accreditation for Berlaymont in advance.

For transparency purposes, this meeting will be published in the Transparency Register of the European Commission. The Cabinet does not intend to communicate actively on the content of this meeting. However, in line with Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, minutes can be made accessible to the public upon request (without any disclosure of protected interests).

Looking forward to hearing from you.

With kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you so much for your prompt reply. I would be happy to have the opportunity to discuss with Mr Werner Stengg. My calendar is free on March 1st. Is there a moment that would work for Mr Stengg?

I remain at your disposal for arranging this meeting,

King regards,

Dear [Redacted],

Christiane Canenbley asked me to thank you for reaching out. Unfortunately on the mentioned dates she is not available for an exchange but our Digital expert Mr Werner Stengg could step in and listen to your concerns.

I am at your disposal for practical arrangements in case this is a suitable solution.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Dear Ms Canenbley,

I have recently joined Mistral AI [REDACTED]. As I'll be attending the EU Internet Forum on February the 29th, I was wondering if you would have time to meet me on the 29th in the morning or on Friday March the 1rst.

I remain at your disposal to organise this meeting,

King regards,

Mistral AI
