Dear Ms. Alma Selvaggia Rinaldi,

Thank you for your request of the Commission decisions in cases SA.105337, SA.105244 and SA.104276, dated respectively 19 December 2023, 20 July 2023 and 4 October 2022.

As DG Competition and the Member States involved are in the process of establishing public versions of the decisions that do not contain any business secrets or other confidential information, no public versions of these texts are currently available. DG Competition is trying to settle this issue as soon as possible with a view to a quick publication.

In this regard, we would like to point out that you are invited to check the present section of DG Competition's website regularly in order to remain aware of any further developments. The Commission will make a non-confidential version of the Decision available on its website at the following address in the near future: [Competition case search (europa.eu)]

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any questions.

Best regards,
