Dear Mr Henning,

Thank you for your request for access to documents of the Council of the European Union.¹

You will find below the link to the documents requested.

Please note that working papers are informal contributions to discussions which cannot automatically be assumed to represent the official position of the delegation or institution concerned, as they may not have been approved at the appropriate level. This in particular applies to presentations from the European Central Bank (ECB), which have not been adopted or endorsed by ECB decision-making bodies; their content was intended only for the purpose of facilitating discussions within the working party and cannot under any circumstances be regarded as official ECB positions.

Yours sincerely,

Fernando FLORINDO
