Subject: Your e-mail dated 23.10.2016 on "Internal review of access to documents request - UK infringement of EU Directive (Gestdem 2015/1564) – Addition to Gestdem 2015/4549 – ARES (2016)5995546

Dear Ms Mc Neill,

The Directorate-General for Justice and Consumers has transmitted to me your above-referred message of 23.10.2016, as the Directorate-General for Migration and Home Affairs is responsible for this policy area. Please note that you received all answers in this case from Directorate-General for Migration and Home Affairs. It would be easier for possible further correspondence that you address directly to us.

In my former letter to you, I gave you full access to the documents you were requesting. I also explained to you the process for the examination of the measures' content by the Commission to determine the conformity of the transposition and their correct implementation, informing you "that this is an ongoing process. The Commission, in that context, is now preparing an implementation report on the directive's transposition. This report is due to be adopted at the end of the year. I therefore invite you to come back to us, if needed, on the basis of the information contained in this report."

As the report is not yet adopted, I am not in a position to give you any answer to your questions, which may find an answer in this report. I therefore again invite you to come back to us, if needed, on the basis of the information contained in this report, when adopted.

Yours sincerely,

Dimitri GIOTAKOS
